OUR APPROACH

SUMAJKT Cleaning and Fumigation Company Limited team follows a very easy and efficient approach for delivering our services to customers. Cleaning sites and times are agreed with customers and our team is acquainted with all the details. Time charts and work schedules for daily work to be done at specific customers and the respective locations. Customers are informed of the staff assigned to them, reporting times, and exit times. Periodic cleaning and fumigation schedules are also prepared and shared with customers and staff. These would state which areas need to be cleaned and fumigated and when. The same goes for gardening and waste management services.

For one-off projects, a proposal will define how the work will be done taking into the consideration the customers' requirements, interests and expectations. A work schedule and the timing is agreed and shared with customers and staff assigned to the projects.

OUR TEAM

We believe in investing in our staff, as they shape the success of our company. At SUMAJKT Cleaning and Fumigation Company Limited, we believe that our team is the most valuable resource. And for this reason:

- Our cleaners are specially trained to work at high levels of service delivery.
- Our training also includes the safe use of industrial cleaning equipment.
- The health and safety of our staff and customers is of paramount importance.
- For all contracts, we create site-specific risk assessments and method statements and our team is well acquainted with these.
- We thoroughly take our staff through our Health and Safety Policy.
